

The fairest Queene that euer King possesse.

King. Suffolke arise.

Welcom Queene Margaret to English Henries Court,
The greatest shew of kindnesse yet we can bestow,
Is this kind kisse: O gracious God of heauen,
Lend me a heart replete with thankfulnessse,
For in this beauteous face thou hast bestowed
A world of pleasures to my perplexed soule.

Queene. Th' excessiue loue I beare vnto your grace,
Forbids me to be lauish of my tongue,
Lest I should speake more then becommes a woman:
Let this suffice, my blisse is in your liking,
And nothing can make poore Margaret miserable,
Vnlesse the crowne of mightie Englands King.

King. Her lookes did wound, but now speech doth pierce,
Louely Queene Margaret sit downe by my side,
And vnckle Gloster, and you lordly Peeres,
With one voice welcome my beloued Queene.

All. Long liue Queene Margaret Englands happinesse.

Queene. We thanke you all.

Sound Trumpets.

Suffolke. My lord Protector, so it please your grace,
Here are the Articles confirm'd of peace,
Betweene our soueraigne and the French King Charles,
Till terme of eighteene months be full expirde.

Humphrey. Inprimis, It is agreed between the French king Charles, and William de la Poole, Marquesse of Suffolke, embatsador for Henry king of England, that the said Henry shal wed and espouse the lady Margaret, daughter to Raynard King of Naples, Cyffels and Ierusalem, and crown her Queen of England, ere the 30. of the next moneth.

Item. It is further agreed between them, that the Dutches of Anioy and of Maine, shal be releas'd and deliuered ouer to the King her fa.

Duke Humfrey lets it fall.

How now vnckle, what's the matter that you stay so sodenly.

Hum. Pardon my Lord, a sodain qualm came ouer my hart,

VVhich

VVhich dimmes mine eies that I can see no more,
Vnckle of Winchester I pray you reade on.

Cardinal. Item, It is further agreed betweene them, Dutchie of Anioy, and of Maine, shal be releas'd and red ouer to the King her father, and she sent ouer of of Englands owne proper cost and charges without d

Thankes vnckle Winchester, Gloster, Yorke, and Buckin-
Somerset, Salisbury, and Warwicke.

VVe thanke you all for this great fauour done,
In entertainement to my princely Queene,
Come let vs in, and with all speede prouide
To see her Coronation be performde.

Exit King, Queene, and Suffolke, a

To you Duke Humphrey must vnfolde his grieffe,
VVhat did my brother Henry toyle himselfe,
And waste his subiects for to conquer France?
And did my brother Bedford spend his time
To keepe in awe that stout vnruely Realme?
And haue not I and mine vnckle Bewford here,
Done all we could to keepe that land in peace?
And is all our labors then spent in vaine,
For Suffolke liethe new made duke that rules the roa
Hath giuen away for our King Henries Queene,
The Dutches of Anioy and Maine vnto her father.
Ah lords, fatall is this mariage canselling our states,
Reuerfing Monuments of conquered France,
Vndoing all, as none had nere beene done.

Card. VVhy how now cofin Gloster, what needes
As if our King were bound vnto your will,
And might not do his will without your leaue:
